ACCREDITATION

Santa Rosa Junior College is fully accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

The Sonoma County Junior College District does not discriminate on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, ethnic group identification, physical disability, mental condition, genetic condition, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information or sexual orientation in any of its policies, procedures or practices; nor does the District discriminate against any employees or applicants for employment on the basis of their age. This non-discrimination policy covers admission, access and treatment in District programs and activities—including but not limited to academic admissions, financial aid, educational services and athletics—and application for district employment.

We acknowledge that we gather at Santa Rosa Junior College on the territorial traditional land of the Pomo People in Santa Rosa and the Coast Miwok People in Petaluma, past and present, and honor with gratitude the land itself and the people who have stewarded it throughout the generations.

ABOUT SRJC

STUDENT TRANSFER

- On average, 1,400 SRJC students transfer to a four-year university each year, with over 800 continuing to a CSU.
- Nearly 80% of SRJC applicants to the University of California are accepted.
- The top transfer destinations for SRJC students are Sonoma State University, UC Davis and UC Berkeley. Students from SRJC also transfer to many high-profile universities, including Stanford, UCLA, and USC.

STUDENT LIFE

- Student Life is the hub of campus engagement at SRJC, where leadership, connection, and community come together. From the Student Government Assembly (SGA) to the 75+ Clubs reflecting diverse student interests - it offers valuable leadership opportunities to grow and make an impact. Whether you're planning events, representing peers, or meeting others who share your passions, Student Life is your gateway to thriving - both personally and professionally.

VISION

- Santa Rosa Junior College commits to setting the standard in cultivating an accessible, open, barrier-free, sustainable environment for students, employees, and the community. The college envisions equitable, impactful, transformative, enriching, and holistic learning opportunities that inspire our students to thrive.

MISSION

- Santa Rosa Junior College transforms the lives of our culturally rich student body, employees, and community by cultivating a welcoming and antiracist environment, centered on social responsibility and cultural awareness. We offer exceptional teaching and learning in support of associate degree, certificate, transfer preparation, workforce preparation and community education programs, integrated with comprehensive student support services.

LOCATIONS

- SRJC has two campuses and three sites:
  - 100-acre campus, Santa Rosa
  - 40-acre campus, Petaluma
  - SRJC Public Safety Training Center, Windsor
  - SRJC Shone Farm, near Forestville
  - SRJC Roseland, southwest Santa Rosa

STUDENT SUCCESS

- In Sonoma County, more than 40% of high school graduates who attend college the fall after graduation enroll at SRJC.
- SRJC offers around 1,300 different courses each semester, with more than 115 majors and 185 certificates.
- Career Education students earn, on average, nearly 40% above Sonoma County's living wage for a single adult.
- SRJC awards approximately 2,200 associate degrees and 4,200 certificates per year.

Santa Rosa Junior College was established in 1918 and is the 11th oldest of the 116 California Community Colleges.

FINANCIAL AID/SCHOLARSHIPS/FEES

SCHOLARSHIPS

- The SRJC Foundation distributed more than $6 million in scholarships, funded by alumni, community members, and the Frank P. Doyle and Polly O'Meara Doyle Scholarship Trust.

FINANCIAL AID

- In the 2025–2026 academic year, more than 14,000 students were awarded financial aid. Nearly $40 million in federal and state grants, Doyle Scholarships, SRJC Foundation Scholarships, and loans were disbursed to SRJC students, while the California College Promise Grant (CCPG) provided additional financial support by covering eligible enrollment fees.

FEES

- California resident students who do not qualify for financial aid or scholarships pay $46 per unit plus fees. All non-resident students, except those who may meet specific AB540 exemption criteria, pay $409 per unit (in addition to enrollment fee) AND $2.00 per unit (in addition to enrollment and non-resident fees). Total non-resident fees per unit: $411 (in addition to enrollment fee). This does not include books, parking, health fees, and other fees that still apply.

SRJC FOUNDATION

- The SRJC Foundation is among the leading community college foundations nationwide with an endowment of more than $100 million to support students and programs for generations to come.
